

Media Release
For immediate release
14/10/2007

Mathew Kenneally for Parliament?

WINNER: BEST COMEDY
Melbourne Fringe Festival 2007

Mathew Kenneally last night won the award for best comedy at the Melbourne Fringe Festival, for his debut solo show, Mathew Kenneally for Parliament?

Return Season

There are three additional performances of Mathew Kenneally for Parliament? taking place this week, Wednesday to Friday. Mat is busy reworking elements of the show to keep it up-to-date, given the constantly changing political climate in the lead up to the election. He is indebted to Howard and Rudd for continuously providing such (great) new material to work off.

About the show

Kenneally is a man who thinks he knows everything and has the arrogance to back it up. He will – in just 55 minutes – renegotiate all of Australia's bilateral trade agreements; add a preamble to the Constitution, in Mandarin; and develop a plan to send the first kangaroo to the moon. No policy platform, politician or political party will be safe from his Blowtorch of Wisdom.

"a whip-smart, funny and gifted spin-paramedic"
– Helen Razer, The Age

LISTING INFORMATION

Glitch Bar and Cinema, 318 St Georges Road, North Fitzroy – ph: 03 9489 9799

Return Season: 8:00pm, Wed–Fri, 17–19 October

Full price: $18 Concession: $12

Group: $15 Politicians: $50

Bookings: www.moshtix.com.au, ph: 1300 438 849

For further information please contact:

Simon Barber

Mob: 0402142569

Email: mk4parliament@gmail.com

Website: homepage.mac.com/mkforp

THE AGE
melbOURne
FRINGE festival
2007